

The Liberty Belle is a WW II Boeing B-17 Flying Fortress on tour in America. Darrin and I happened to park next to it last Friday night when we arrived at Phoenix's Deer Valley airport. Sunday as we were preparing to depart for Corona, we watched her taxi by and then take off. I took a couple of pictures and wanted to share them with you.

Ready to roll

My Mooney, Darrin, and the Belle

Taxi past

Guns top and bottom

Lifting off

Guns in the tail too

Nose art from the Liberty Belle

Much more information is available at:
<http://www.libertyfoundation.org/index.php>